

Keller Army Community Hospital's Family Advocacy Program (FAP) will be conducting a Q&A session on Monday, April 13, 2026, from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The Q&A session will provide the opportunity to:

- Learn what FAP is all about
- Learn about upcoming FAP changes
- Learn about FAP services

Keller FAP staff will be available to answer your questions.

The poster features a purple and pink gradient background. On the left, a purple circle contains the text "Family Advocacy Program" in white and "Drop-in Q&A" in a smaller font. To the right is a pie chart with five segments: a pink segment for "Scan the QR CODE to join!", a purple segment for "Learn what FAP is all about!", a purple segment for "Learn about upcoming FAP changes.", a purple segment for "Learn about FAP services.", and a purple segment for "FAP staff will be available to answer your questions." A QR code is positioned below the pie chart. At the bottom, the date "Monday, 13 APR 2026" and phone number "0800-1500" are displayed. Two circular logos are in the bottom right corner: one with a caduceus and another with a heart and hands.
